

PAM KROK

3554 Sarah Drive, Leesville, LA 71446
pamkrok@email.com | 222 555 7777

Oh

Relevant Coursework

- Introduction to Literature
- Shakespearean Studies
- American Literature
- British Literature
- Modernist Poetry
- Literary Theory and Criticism

Skills

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Proficient in literary analysis and interpretation
- Excellent research and critical thinking abilities
- Creative writing skills, including poetry and fiction.
- Strong organizational and time management skills
- Ability to work independently and in a team environment.

Experience

Editorial Intern City Publishing House Cityville, State June 2052 - Present

- Assisted in the review and editing of manuscripts for publication.
- Conducted research on literary trends and potential authors.
- Proofread and copyedited various documents and manuscripts

Writing Tutor City University Writing Center Cityville, State September 2051 - May 2022

- Assisted students in improving their writing skills

- Developed personalized strategies to address individual student's writing challenges
- Conducted writing workshops and facilitated group discussions on writing topics

Publication

- Exploring the Modernist Movement: A Comparative Analysis of T.S. Eliot and Virginia Woolf" - City Literary Journal, Volume 10, Issue 2, 2052
- "Breaking the Silence: The Role of Women in Shakespeare's Tragedies" - City University Literary Review, Volume 8, 2051
- Strong organizational and time management skills
- Ability to work independently and in a team environment.

Organization

- Vice President, English Literature Society, City University (2052-2053)
- Volunteer, Cityville Public Library, Literary Outreach Program (2051-2052)
- Member, City University Poetry Club (2050-2053)